DESCRIPTION

ACCOMMODATION DESCRIPTION Single-storey bungalow located on the frontline of a cliff, just 50 metres from a fine sandy beach with turquoise waters known as Cala Calafató. With a surface area of 65 m², this cosy home offers a terrace with sea views and a courtyard with an outdoor shower. It features two double bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a living-dining room with a sofa bed and satellite TV. The kitchen is separate and fully equipped with a butane gas oven, fridge, microwave, and washing machine. The property also includes Wi-Fi connection to ensure a comfortable and connected stay at all times. This bungalow is ideal for enjoying the peace and serenity of a privileged coastal setting. The accommodation welcomes families and responsible adult groups. Events or youth parties are not allowed. AREA DESCRIPTION The Costa Dorada is one of Catalonia's most renowned destinations, featuring numerous Blue Flag beaches recognized for their water quality and excellent state of conservation. It offers crystal-clear turquoise coves and beaches, many of them uncrowded and even untouched, perfect for relaxing and enjoying nature. This setting is ideal for exploring the coastline on foot via the GR-92 trail, or for activities such as cycling, kayaking, sailing, or scuba diving. The Calafat residential area, located in this privileged environment, features a marina and a racing circuit, and stretches along more than 2 km of coastline. It is located in the fishing town of L'Ametlla de Mar, known for the high quality of its fresh fish. Just 20 minutes south lies the Ebro Delta Natural Park, where visitors can enjoy outstanding cuisine, especially the region's traditional rice dishes. You can also experience unique activities such as swimming with tuna offshore or catamaran excursions. Only 30 minutes away is
